Insurance Information Practices

(California Insurance Code 791.04)

Your Privacy and Its Protection:

In order to protect your privacy, we want you to be aware of the following:

1. Personal information may be collected from persons other than you or individuals proposed for coverage. For example, we may obtain copies of past claims activity.
2. If an investigative consumer report is ordered in connection with your insurance transaction, you will be given an opportunity to be interviewed in connection with it. You also have the right to obtain a copy of the report by contacting the reporting insurance support organization.
3. You have the right of access and correction with respect to all personal information collected and which is contained in our files.
4. Personal information and other privileged information collected by the Company or our Producers may in certain circumstances be disclosed to certain parties without your authorization, as permitted or required by law. For example, information about you may be exchanged with our claim adjusters who become involved in the settlement of a claim.

We are concerned about the protection of you privacy. We do not share information with outside sources for cross marketing purposes. A more detailed description of our information practices and your right to privacy is available at your request.
